Clothing And Other Items You Need To Bring

- Be prepared for warm or cold weather.
- Dress in comfortable layers.
- Wear and bring clothing that will keep you warm when wet: fleece, capilene/polypropylene, rain jacket /windbreaker.
- Do not wear cotton jeans or cotton cut-offs.
- Footwear: Getting in and out of kayaks requires that your feet step in the water (sorry, no way around it) so we recommend neoprene booties, or water shoes with wool socks. Please do not paddle in sandals.
- Warm Hat
- Hat with a bill for the sun.
- Sunscreen & Lip Balm
- A lightweight pair of biking or paddling gloves is a good idea for full day trips for folks with hands new to kayaking.
- A change of dry clothes, towel, and dry shoes. You can store extra clothes, cameras or whatever in the kayaks or leave items behind while you're out kayaking.
- If you bring a camera, bring a zip-lock baggy for protection.
- Strap for your sunglasses and prescription glasses so you won't lose them in the water. Chums or Croakies work well.
- Water, Lunch, Snacks
- Signed Liability Release
